University of Phoenix Stadium manager, Global Spectrum, is hosting a job fair Saturday to hire up to 800 part-time employees for event-related positions.

The fair will take place from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at University of Phoenix Stadium located at 1 Cardinals Drive, Glendale. It is free and open to the public.

Available positions for the 2013-2014 season include housekeepers, utility workers, security supervisors, ushers, ticket takers, greeters, parking lot attendants and parking lot/operations supervisors.

“These part-time positions are a great way to earn extra money and have fun while doing it,” said Peter Sullivan, Global Spectrum’s general manager and regional vice president for University of Phoenix Stadium. “The workers hired have a chance to be involved with many different kinds of events including Arizona Cardinals games and the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.”
